

Fundraising campaign to help earthquake-affected Morocco

On 15 September, WAMU-NET launched a fundraising campaign to support the restoration of one of the last watermills in Morocco and the nearby farm and rural house with a reconstruction project.

We are pleased to report that 2,468 € have already been raised thanks to contributions from:

- Historisches Klaerwerk Krefeld / Christoph Becker (Germany)
- Museum of the Marmore Waterfalls / Francesco Fioretti (Piediluco, Italy)
- The Global Network of Water Museums
- Civiltà dell'Acqua International Center / Eriberto Eulisse (Italy)
- Museum of Water / Amy Sharrocks, (London, UK)
- Museo del Agua "Agua para Siempre" (Tehuacan / Mexico)
- Ian Kerr-Wilson, individual member
